

A Hand Book On LCFCLUBS

Table Of Contents

Learn French With Online Lessons	3
Spanish Lessons Through The Online Medium	4
The Easy Way To Learn English Online.....	5
Lcf Clubs: The Fun Way To Learn Spanish And French	6
Fun Way To Learn French And Improve Your Language Skills	7
Spanish Lessons from Experts	8
French can be easily learned with the help of our most trusted products	10
After School Clubs For Languages.....	12

Learn French With Online Lessons

Schools have started giving importance to foreign languages and they now include them in the curriculum. Whenever foreign languages are not part of the curriculum, many parents enrol their children in after school classes to help them learn foreign languages like French and Spanish.

If you wish to enrol your child in an after school language club, you can get in touch with LCF Clubs. This company also offers activities and programmes to learn and practise French and Spanish online.

Attending an after school club or subscribing to LCF Clubs Babelzone language website will provide your child with many opportunities to learn the language easily and the fun way. Activities like storytelling, craft workshops, drama, songs, games and other fun activities provide children with the best tools to learn French or Spanish quickly and without pain.

In the clubs, the classes are informal and friendly. The resulting informal atmosphere is conducive to working on confidence and self esteem.

The clubs use audio-visual resources that help to learn French during the lessons. LCF Clubs popular online learning resources include Babelzone and Phonicszone. These resources not only help with the French language but other foreign language as well. They help your child learn Spanish online and provides the quickest way to learn French as well.

With Babelzone, children are able to interact and learn the language with activities such as fun games, animated songs and colourful stories. The Phonicszone, on the other hand, concentrates on learning English phonetics. These days many schools are also using these resources to make education more fun.

To get more information on these clubs and resources you can log on to www.lcfclubs.com. LCF clubs have over 5000 students and are renowned in the UK for providing with dynamic, interactive and fast paced lessons in foreign languages like French and Spanish. LCF Clubs can also help children improve in English by making use of the online resources that make language learning more interesting.

Spanish Lessons Through The Online Medium

Nowadays, foreign languages are an important part of the school curriculum. When schools don't include languages in their curriculum, the parents send their children to after school classes that offer opportunities to learn a new language. With the help of these language lessons children get to learn Spanish, French and other languages as well. Enrolling a child with LCF Clubs enables him or her to be part of the best foreign languages after school clubs. This is the quickest way to learn French or Spanish. LCF Clubs has over 5000 centers and has more than 50,000 children attending the weekly sessions. The atmosphere at these clubs is friendly and informal allowing children to participate actively and learn Spanish or French the fun way.

LCF clubs methods rely on interactive sessions and activities like singing, dancing, games, story telling, drama and craft. This variety of fun and lively activities helps the children understand and learn Spanish or French during enjoyable lessons.

Children can access Spanish lessons with the help of websites providing online Spanish activities. LCF Clubs also provide online resources that help to learn Spanish and French online with ease. Two online resources: Babelzone and the Phonicszone are used to teach English, French and Spanish. Babelzone is a fun and interactive site that helps children learn foreign languages through interactive sessions. The Phonicszone is however, more dedicated towards the English phonetics.

The Club also sells language resources such as CDs with many songs in English, French and Spanish. These CDs are very useful for polishing your language skills.

Apart from foreign languages, the club also focuses on English language and presents in Phonicszone various tools that help the children improve their grammar and pronunciation.

For people who have command over the language, the club offers opportunities to teach Spanish and other foreign language and earn money. You can become a LCF trainee and teach at these clubs. To get more information on these clubs and the course structure, you can visit www.lcfclubs.com.

The Easy Way To Learn English Online

English is one of the most spoken languages all over the world. If your child needs help with learning English, online learning may be the answer. LCF Clubs online programs show a fun and interactive way to learn English. The activities are fun and stimulating and allow children to learn the language fast.

LCF Clubs online programs include activities and animations like stories, songs, fun and challenging games that engage the child in the program. These interactive activities help children understand and respond in a foreign language.

The contents are especially directed at learners from as young as 3 to 11 years old. LCF Clubs online courses use music, songs, rhymes and games to make the learning process more interesting. Enjoying the sessions is the key to faster and easier learning.

Special online learning resources like Babelzone and Phonicszone help learn English online and make the course easier. While in Babelzone, stories, games and songs are used for teaching the different languages, the Phonicszone focuses towards the phonetics.

You can also buy CDs from LCF Clubs. These songs and rhymes CDs help the children polish their language skills. Other languages like French and Spanish are also on offer.

Alternatively, if parents want to enroll their child in after school language clubs, they can get them to join LCF Clubs. They are renowned in the United Kingdom for providing the best after school education. There are over 5000 learning centres. These clubs also offer lessons within curriculum time in schools.

To get more information on LCF clubs, you can visit www.lcfclubs.com. The site will give you information about the course structure as well as the locations and contact numbers for the various centres. The course is affordable and offers a fun and fast way to learn French, Spanish or English.

Lcf Clubs: The Fun Way To Learn Spanish And French

The importance of foreign languages like French and Spanish is growing. Many parents and guardians are enrolling their children in after school clubs that provide lessons in foreign languages. One of the most popular after school clubs in the UK is LCF clubs. The company offers a fun way to learn Spanish and other foreign languages.

Parents can enroll their child with LCF clubs to enable them to learn French and Spanish easily. The clubs' approach to Spanish language learning is informal to infuse confidence and fun to generate interest. Interaction dominates the sessions in these clubs: every child gets to contribute.

Apart from the clubs that provide a fun way to learn Spanish, LCF clubs have also introduced online resources to help children to learn Spanish online. Using these resources, they improve their language skills. The online resources also help Learn English online or learn French online. Through this interesting and fun way to learn a foreign language, children are able to speak Spanish easily.

If you wish to help your child improve his English then LCF clubs can help with that as well and allow your child to learn English online. Children can work on his pronunciation, reading, listening and grammar easily through these online programs. Similarly they can also learn Spanish online or learn French online with online resources such as Babelzone or Phonicszone.

Babelzone is an interesting and interactive site for the young learners and presents a fun way to learn Spanish or French language. It makes use of activities like stories, games, and songs in the particular language. Its Interactive whiteboard resources make learning in a group or individually more fun.

If you are trained in foreign languages like Spanish and French then you can teach languages at LCF Clubs. You can become an LCF licensee and be a part of the program.

LCF Clubs also provide CDs at reasonable prices and help the children learn the foreign language. To know more about the course structure and about the fees for these after school classes or online resources, you can visit www.lcfclubs.com.

Fun Way To Learn French And Improve Your Language Skills

Learning a new language is difficult but becomes easier when the method is fun and interactive.

Foreign languages are becoming a requirement to access better situations. Schools and parents are opting for a fun way to learn French and other languages. LCF after-school clubs offer French and Spanish. The method used is fun, dynamic and interactive. The children are able to enjoy their classes and are able to polish their language skills easily through the carefully designed syllabus.

LCF Clubs are well known for their learning programmes in after school clubs and within the schools' curriculum time. The programmes use innovative and interactive tools for teaching the foreign languages. Children really experience the fun way to learn French. The class atmosphere is informal and friendly, enabling the children to participate actively, gain confidence and learn the languages.

These sessions include activities such as dancing, singing, games, crafts, story telling, drama and various other interactive activities that make the language learning easier and more understandable. The method focuses on participation by all the children.

Kids also learn French, Spanish and other foreign languages through LCF Clubs website. Children learn French online or Spanish online easily. This multi-lingual site contains many helpful tools to help the children understand the foreign language by watching and listening to fun stories and songs or by playing numerous interactive games.

Finally, people who have a command over the language can teach French and other foreign languages and become a LCF licensee. LCF has more than 5000 centres and deals with foreign languages like French, English and Spanish. To know more about the course structure and the affordable fees, log on to www.lcfclubs.com

Spanish Lessons from Experts

Learning a foreign language is high on the agenda of many people. Most parents want their children to learn a foreign language and some want to master different languages themselves. Their reasons are varied: relocating to a foreign destination or just curiosity towards the unknown language and adding value to one's personality.

Presently, many languages have become extremely popular amongst learners- French, German, Chinese, Japanese and Spanish to name a few. And the best part is now children can Learn to Speak Spanish within a group. The advent of many after school clubs has made this possible. These clubs are a new concept that provides additional activities for children and are a bonus for parents especially during the holidays.

Popularity of these clubs is evident and LCF Club deserves special mention. With over 5,000 centers, LCF Clubs is the largest provider of after school clubs in the country. The activities in their highly structured courses are inspiring and appealing.

An informal and friendly teaching method provides the best and safest learning conditions for children to develop their self-esteem, self-confidence and expertise over the language. The children can rapidly acquire enough knowledge to enjoy using the language for communication and expression.

With over 50,000 children now attending weekly sessions to learn Spanish through a structured and proven course, designed to stimulate their natural enthusiasm for language and communication, the LCF club has scaled new heights of success.

As well as language clubs, LCF also provides CDs and other allied products to help your child acquire a better grasp of the language.

Apart from learning opportunities for your child, the club also offers you an excellent opportunity to teach and earn. If you are a natural expert with French, Spanish or English you are more than welcome to become a LCF Licensee.

The unmatched popularity and success of LCF has led the company to introduce two innovative online learning resources: BABELZONE & PHONICSZONE

Babelzone is a fun interactive site for young learners with stories, games and songs in French, Spanish and English. Phonicszone is a site dedicated to the learning of English phonetics with a synthetic approach.

French can be easily learned with the help of our most trusted products

French is one of the most sought after languages and most parents want their children to master it. However, busy school schedules, regular tests, assignments and project have made it nearly impossible for kids to take out time to attend classes for yet another subject added to their curriculum. Most parents have now, devised a way to overcome this problem through products such as audio and video language CDs and other related products that can aid in learning French.

There are many companies that provide CDs and books, which can be useful for learning French. In fact this is a more interesting way to learn the language as compared to the dreadfully boring text books used in schools.

Amongst the host of companies that provide such products, books and CDs from LCF Clubs deserve special mention. With LCF Clubs products, every aspect of Learn to Speak French is covered for every age range. The CDs can be used anytime, even while you are on the move. Another reason for their huge popularity is their reasonable price.

The KS1/2 language resources are also used in an ever increasing number of primary schools within the curriculum. The range of CDs available with them in parts includes the following:

- KS1 - Pack - French
- KS2 - Part 1 - French
- KS2 - Part 2 - French
- KS2 - Part 3 - French
- KS2 - Part 4 - French
- CD -Le Club Français des Tout-Petits
- CD1 - Le Club Français est arrivé
- CD2 - Le Club Français est de retour
- CD3 - Le Club Français est avec toi

LCF Clubs is also one of the most popular after school clubs operation throughout the UK. LCF Clubs undertakes one of the most effective language classes for children.

There are more than 50000 kids all over the UK attending the after school clubs of LCF. The number in itself speaks for the popularity and accountability of LCF.

To inculcate better learning they have also introduced two new innovative online learning resources: BABELZONE & PHONICSZONE. Babelzone is a fun interactive site for young learners with stories, games and songs in French, Spanish and English.

Phonicszone is a site dedicated to the learning of English phonetics with a synthetic approach.

So, to see your child speaking and writing French flawlessly, log on to lcfclubs

After School Clubs For Languages

Currently, there are innumerable after school clubs that can provide valuable assistance in bringing up your child and it is obvious that you would want to settle for nothing but the best for him/her. In that case, probably LCF Clubs should be the obvious choice. With more than 5,000 centres, LCF is the largest provider of after school clubs in the UK.

LCF's language clubs in French, Spanish, and English follow a curriculum to effectively teach a foreign language to your child. The lesson plans are fast-paced and promote participation from everyone.

The activities include storytelling, drama, crafts and many fun songs and games. Children acquire enough knowledge to enjoy using the language for communication and expression.

LCF has now over 50,000 children now attending each week to learn French and learn Spanish.

LCF provides structured programs for both After School Clubs and lessons within curriculum time in schools.

With the success of the after school clubs, the company has launched two more innovative Online learning resources: BABELZONE & PHONICZONE.

Babelzone is a fun interactive site for young learners with stories, games and songs in French, Spanish and English.

Phonicszone is a site dedicated to the learning of English phonetics with a synthetic approach. The club has also devised interactive CDs to help your children master and brush up their foreign language skills from time to time.