

The pelican, the fish and the crab

Characters:

P = a pelican
DF = daddy fish
MF = mummy fish
BF = baby fish
C = a crab

Story:

In the Malaysian jungle, at the bottom of a waterfall, there is a pool.

A family of fish lives there.

One fine day, a pelican arrives.

P: I'm hungry!

DF: Good morning!

P: Good morning! What a shame!

DF: What a shame?

P: The sun is too hot!

The waterfall is going to dry up!

The pool is going to dry up!

DF: My poor family!

P: I know a perfect pool! (a subterranean river)

DF: Thank you! Thank you! What a good idea!

But, how do we get there?

P: You can travel INSIDE my beak with your family!

1 – We go to the pool.

2 – You like the pool.

3 – We're all happy.

DF: Good idea!

BF: Yippee!

MF: Yes!

The pelican takes off.

C: This pelican has a BIG stomach.
Where are the fish?

A bit later...

P: I am STILL hungry!

C: Hello pelican!

P: Hello crab! What a shame!

C: Talk louder! I can't hear you!

P: WHAT A SHAME! EVERYTHING IS DRYING UP

C: Go on! Spit it out!

DF: Phew! What an adventure!

MF: The moral of this story is:
Do not listen to pelicans!
