Use Interactive Whiteboard Resources to Teach French & Spanish

It's not easy to teach a second language to children. Children easily get bored by traditional teaching methods. To help liven up your language classes and keep children engaged, LCF Clubs have created e-learning websites that can be used in a classroom on Interactive Whiteboards.

Using our songs, stories, games and presentations you can create a fun and stimulating lesson. Interactivity is the key; each of our e-learning websites have been created for use with Interactive white boards such as SMART Boards, or Prometheans.

Online French & Spanish activities on Babelzone include memory games, word puzzles, hangman games, drag & drop and click & shoot games, and quizzes. The SmartBoard resources make French learning a fun and simple process for kids. As well as teaching French & Spanish, the SmartBoard resources can also be used for teaching English.

Using the games on Babelzone will introduce children to French and Spanish in a fun and interesting way, and help them to remember the vocabulary easily.

Babelzone has been given the SMART Board 'Ready' accreditation.

The website also provides other resources like such as French and Spanish Phonics, and CD/ songbooks, and stickers.

Online English Practice: Write & Speak English Perfectly

"Practice makes perfect"- this adage applies to almost everything we do in our life. Be it cooking, driving, playing musical instruments, or speaking a foreign language, the more you practice it, the more efficient you become. If you are learning the English language, you can practice English online.

Practicezone, part of Englishzone, is a website set up for children wishing to learn and practice English vocabulary. Practicezone uses fun songs, stories and games to bring some excitement and enjoyment to learning. It can be used in the classroom on interactive whiteboards or IT suites; or at home on the family PC.

English language teachers will also find the 'print and play' worksheets very useful. Save time creating your own worksheets, by downloading worksheets created by us that follow the themes used in the online activities.
